

Tracy M. Lentz

Tracy M. Lentz, is a New York Licensed Funeral Director and funeral service professional. She has worked in the funeral profession for the past 18 years. She graduated in 1995 from the State University of Stony Brook with a BA in Multidisciplinary Sciences. In 1996 she graduated from American Academy McAllister Institute of Funeral directing (AAMI) with a certificate diploma in Funeral Directing,

She specializes as a Funeral Director in advanced funeral planning with Moloney Family Funeral Homes in Long Island, New York, and has done so for the past 12 years. For the past 6 years she has enjoyed teaching Sociology of Funeral Directing, Ethics, and Restorative Art for the American Academy McAllister Institute of Funeral Service.

She is a frequent lecturer in community lecturing for senior citizens, nursing homes and assisted living communities. She speaks about a variety of different senior issues such as planning for the future, and veteran's benefits.